Report – Clerk-Treasurer Woodworth

- Election inspector Vida Johnston left a message she wasn't able to be an election inspector for emergency health reasons. Clerk-Treasurer Woodworth contacted New York State Conference of Mayors (NYCOM) legal department for advise since all others approved by the County Board of Elections were unavailable. NYCOM advised that as long as the person was a Village resident they would qualify to be an inspector, Clerk-Treasurer Woodworth would need to give the person training prior to starting the election was all. Clerk-Treasurer Woodworth placed several phone calls to Village residents, Sherrie Manning, Beth Malone, Wesley Bradley and Laurie Bradley were all available however only for part day shifts. Clerk-Treasurer Woodworth recommended Sherrie Manning from 11:30am to 3:00pm, Beth Malone from 3:00pm to 9:00pm as well as naming Wesley Bradley, Laurie Bradley and Virginia Nicholson as alternates.
